

4.

ON ACTIVE SERVICE
WITH THE
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

191-
from now on make it
a box of chocolates
instead of ruts, for we can buy ruts here for almost nothing and
the candy that we can get is ^(last box) no good and the puil is out of sight.
Good chocolates are worth their weight in gold over here, so don't forget.
I'm feeling fine and have no intention of getting sick. Write often.
Lots of love.

Your bro. Cal. Bruce

161 Field Works.

16 San. France.

A.E. 7 - France.

Via. New York City.

P.S. we are still at same camp
as when I last wrote.

BY Substure
10/1/16
10/1/16

3.

ON ACTIVE SERVICE
WITH THE
AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY FORCE

191-
real cold weather at home.
It will soon be spring
here, in earnest land
they I guess the weather truly is wonderful.

However. I like my France but oh! you U.S.A. I haven't rec'd a letter from mother yet since she departed for sure that we had arrived safely over here, but no doubt as soon as she knew that I arrived O.K. she would not worry so much.

There is absolutely no
need of worry and you must do all you can
to convince hers of that fact. Say sis if you want to send anything